

I see no reason that XM should not be able to broadcast local weather and information to its subscribers. If they are not allowed to, then the government is allowing a monopoly of sorts. XM is better than local radio, I dont even want to turn the local radio on.